

Val di Cornia

SEA VIEW

The most evocative walks overlooking the sea

THE SAILOR

SAINT VINCENT

The walk that starts from the San Vincenzo pier will take you right into the middle of the sea, through an evocative route that is beautiful in every season. Once you reach the bottom, the statue of the sailor and a beautiful engraving to read await you. In front of you, the Tuscan archipelago and Corsica!

PLUMMET

The Punta Falcone walk, in Piombino, is a real gem. The promontory is an oasis to admire Mediterranean vegetation and splendid views of the Tuscan Archipelago. The walk also allows you to cross some war garrisons dating back to the World War.

PIAZZA BOVIO

PLUMMET

One of the most fascinating squares in Italy is located in Piombino. The lighthouse, the view of the island of Elba, the Rose of the Winds and the numerous benches make this square unique, created right on top of a large spur of rock overlooking the sea.

STREET OF THE CAVALRYMEN

PLUMMET

We have already told you about this cove. This time we want to focus on the beautiful panorama that can be enjoyed from above in via dei Cavalleggeri.

Take the dirt road going towards Baratti and Buca delle Fate, stop at the giant bench and continue.

The view is breathtaking!

MASCAGNI TERRACE

LIVORNO

A super instagrammable classic. The Terrace, named after the composer Mascagni, fascinates with its simplicity and elegance: a chessboard and a small balustrade, then the sea as far as the eye can see. A magical place, especially at sunset.

CHURCH OF SAN CERBONE

POPULONIA

The small Church of San Cerbone is located in the Gulf of Baratti, practically above the sea. We really love walking along the gulf, crossing the pine forest and arriving in front of this small church. We warn you, however, that you will often find it closed.

TANKARD CASTLE

LIVORNO

A breathtaking view of the sea and an enchanting location in every season of the year: the Castello del Boccale in Antignano, Livorno, is a place that deserves to be photographed! The rocks smoothed by the power of the sea, a castle on the surface of the water... an experience with the scent of salt.

CAMPIGLIA M.MA

From the medieval village of Campiglia Marittima the panorama extends over the surrounding nature up to the sea. One of our favorites is this: the mullioned window of the Rocca del Borgo!
